

U.S. Consulate General
Yekaterinburg, Russia
October 21, 2014

Representatives of the Consular Section of the U.S. Consulate General in Yekaterinburg, Russia will visit Izhevsk on Thursday, November 6, 2014 to hold a town hall meeting with U.S. citizens residing in and near Izhevsk, and provide a limited number of consular services (passport renewals, notarials, consular registrations, and general inquiries). American citizens wishing to attend the meeting may come to the "Telecom" Hotel, located at 36 Dzerzhinskogo Street in Izhevsk, at 5:45 p.m. Appointments are not required. Payment for any services must be made in cash.

For more information about the event, please contact our consular section staff at consulyekat@state.gov or by dialing +7 (343) 379-3001, ext. 2130. Information about consular services provided by the U.S. Consulate General in Yekaterinburg, Russia, such as fees and required forms or documents, may be found at the Consulate's website at <http://yekaterinburg.usconsulate.gov/service.html>. The Consular Section greatly appreciates your assistance in sharing this message with other U.S. citizens who are currently residing in or near Izhevsk but are not currently registered to receive such messages.